A Skin of Beauty is a Joy Forever OUINN CHALLENGES THE SUPERVISORS

Another Heartache Is Caused By Palolo Roads

Clem Quinn, the attorney, last evening challenged the whole Board of Supervisors, and he survives to tell the tale. The explanation lies in the fact that at the time the County Fathers were so busy fighting each other that they had neither the time but Quinn and a few others who lived on a side road had not been able to agree as to how this road should be built, and as a consequence it had been left alone. Quinn, Mr. Pringle and others had handicapped the work by factional fights.

Quinn hotly said he challenged the statement made by Hustace and went into considerable road history. He explained that he was not personally interested in the matter, but he thought that the work in the valley had been done in a very wasteful manner.

ner. The matter was finally referred to the Road Committee,

H. P. Wood wrote for the Promotion Committee asking that the Punchbowl drive be put in shape and that money be appropriated for a coral dressing for the Kahuku road. Hustace stated that the latter appropriation had been made. The Punchbowl matter was referred to the Road Committee, the chairman remarking, howmittee, the chairman remarking, however, that there was such a great de-mand for roads leading to people's homes that it was doubtful that any money could be spent on mure scenic driveways.

Residents of the Makee road asked for street lights and residents of Punchbowl street for a storm sewer for that thoroughfare between Luso and Kinau streets and also for street lights. These matters were referred to committees.

The bond of Thos, Cummings as
